Docket No. 06-4494

Appellee's Response to Appellant's Consented Motion to Amend the Briefing Schedule

The United States of America, Appellee, respectfully responds to Appellant's Consented Motion to Amend the Briefing Schedule Based on New Disclosures of December 6, 2007.

As Appellant's Motion states, the Government consents to his request for additional time to file his brief. Despite our consent to the motion, Appellant felt compelled to make inaccurate and unnecessary insinuations about the Government's letter dated October 25, 2007, and our response to the Motion for Limited Remand. Although we disagree with his insinuations, we will address them when appropriate — not in the context of an uncontested motion for more time. Thus, we reiterate that we consent to Appellant's Consented Motion to
